For sadly missing the Arson Victims Benefit shows held in Northampton, MA, I pieced together this mashup as a tribute to those shows. Performing those nights, at the Elevens, Sierra Grille, The Iron Horse, and in front of Kathy's Diner were (in order...

What's your plans for Halloween? Mine, back @ home watching NCTV. Watch NCTV as much as you can but curse them for losing some of the shows they were supposed to air on Halloween night. Sadly, "Theater For The Insane" will not air.

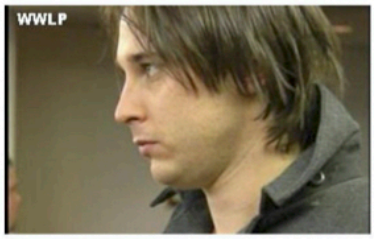
THKS GUYS FOR SPREADING THIS VERY FAST!!! I COULD MAKE A BAD PUN BUT IT WOULD ONLY LOOK TOO EASY AND UNNECESSARY. GLAD IT'S BEING SEEN. TNKS THNKS THNKS!!!!!

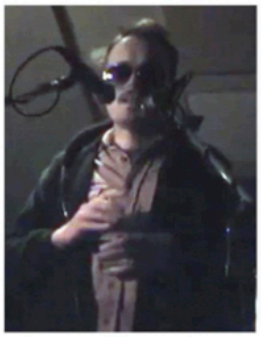
zombies hit the streets and take away all the cats and chicks and send them to the other side. they continued to write down everything they managed the consume and i kept a record of it in the good book. i was told to remember the zombie's name so i just said "jacko." he was already underground and he didn't count. why is a zombie still underground when they're actually the 'walking dead.' i know, but people are just a little embarrassed. it always takes one bad zombie to spoil the whole rotten bunch.

Village Hill Northampton is coming along so fast… I saw some houses being built so quickly right out my front window. I went down there and took some pictures. A man was also photographing them. Was he a spy? Kollie is also coming up fast. They just built a row of bushes in front of the place. As a Facebook friend said: "What An Eyesore." Indeed, but it's still not yet a Village.

-- why do i need to be talking about charlie sheen and what little i know about his great escapades/what's this about suspicious packages hitting the airlines and how we must watch out for them/too much sports in the news and i can only find pleasure in hockey watching every man hit each other in the head/what are these crazy movies the kids are watching these days and why is digital not so easy on the eyes????? ---

Anthony Baye was a branded man and now has to go to trial. Ella Longpre was sad for the victims of the fire and decided to put on a benefit concert. The bands included were: The Steamrollers, Fat Worm Of Error, The Thungs, A Tom Petty tribute @ The Iron Horse and comedian Sharkee Katz. I compiled a mashup and NCTV messed up the broadcast. Half of it was aired and then it cut off. Happy to say I might air it again later, once Baye's trial is in session. ---





(this just in: yesterday I uploaded it onto Vimeo, Oct. 29, 2010). Gabe Sullivan of The Thungs/World's Greatest Dad linked it on his facebook page.

The 2010 Halloween shows for NCTV will be: "Unga Bunga," "NCTV Warlock Project," "I'm Hungry" and "A Show Called 'Undone.'" Also airing this weekend is: "Theater For The Insane" and "Dann's Holiday Mashup." Some of these were sadly unfinished but were quickly pieced together @ the last min. "Unga Bunga" is fun and "Warlock Project" is better -- actually "Warlock" is my favorite in this set.

Just uploaded a video recording of Matt Hebert doing a BOB DYLAN interpretation @ NOHO's Transperformance 15: New York. This was taped in 2005 @ NOHO's high school. Look Park was rained out so they had it @ the school instead. I messaged it to Matt, as well as the old videoclip of "She's Wearing Her Hair Like Donna Reed" by the Ware River Club. Here's what Matt had to say:

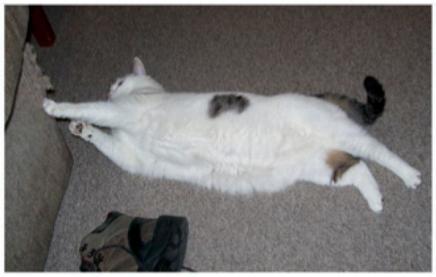
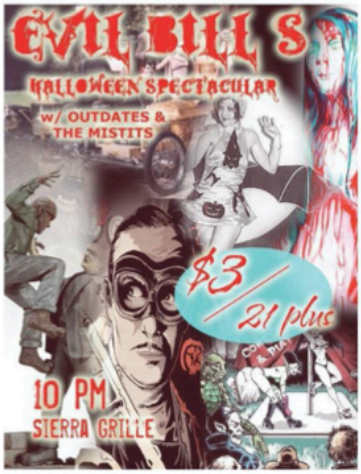
Plain and simple.

--- MIMI is a dead cat (playing a dead cat). I sometimes call her Meeh-Meeh w/ an Al Jolson accent. I also play peek-a-boo w/ her too, covering her face w/ my hand and leaving it there for a few seconds. Peek-a-Boo! I say. Later on she goes back to playing dead cat.





Local Media The Sierra Grille's manager has generously invited me to patronize their establishment once again. Whew!

Zombie Pubcrawl happened this year too. I missed it but i know ms. Cherlovestrong attended and got some photos. she's now allowed back into sierra grille and attended their Halloween show w/ Evil Bill's Halloween Spectacular/Outdates & The Mistits. why she got kicked out originally, that's a long story. Let's hope that she can stay for good and let's hope she can find a new apartment and a roof over her head.

Local Media If you know of anyone looking to move in to an apt (share) in Noho, please have them call me. It's @500 not incl. available Dec. 1.

Headed down to LOOK Park's Roundabout and it wasn't a pretty sight. Me and Leigh almost got hit by a trucker who was driving a big truck. It was so ridiculous that I say "why" just "why" do they say it's safer this way?

Blame it on ourselves then for reckless driving.

Who is BENT and why is he gay?

NCTV has a new title screen… changes happening already. Sad to see Bryn leave. Hope he does well out there wherever he goes. Cheers Mate!

WILL THIS REALLY SOLVE THE FLU PROBLEM AFTER ALL? TILL THE NEXT TIME AND THE NEXT ONE WORSE TO COME…

Memory Magic had the job from hell… the slide job from hell. Mr. Roy's ten thousand slide scanning job. An endless three week job. Scanning slides and writing down their names under each image. Luckily it's all finished with. A job well done. And we're glad to know that he is now a happy customer.

Memory Magic is going well. Out to sushi and back to work. Working on media conversion jobs. Next job to do, Reel-to-Reel to CD. Previous job done, telecine to DVD. Managed to get rid of a bad flicker problem w/ a de-flicker filter. Anticipate more telecine jobs in the near future. Must get a better cam, though. -
